Graceland University invites applications and nominations for the position of Vice President for Student Life.

The Vice President for Student Life reports to the President and is a member of the Executive Council and maintains regular communication between the Council and departments related to student life. The Vice President will serve as the chief student life officer, chief student advocate and athletic director. The Vice President is responsible for providing campus-wide leadership and, with the Dean of Students, managing student services offices: residential life, food service, Career, Academic and Personal Counseling (CAP Center), campus ministries, student government, health services, international programs and conferences and events office. As the Athletic Director, the Vice President will also be responsible for nineteen NAIA varsity sports. Graceland University is sponsored by the Community of Christ and the Vice President will interact with church leaders.

Qualifications

A master's degree is required; doctorate is strongly preferred, extensive administrative experience in a senior role in student development or a related field. The successful candidate will also have a demonstrated ability to maintain open and effective working relationships with students, staff, faculty, administrators, and trustees, in addition to experience at a residential university and in athletic administration.

The search committee will begin screening applicants immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Applications should include current vitae and the names, addresses, and email addresses of at least three individuals who may be contacted for references. Send to: Graceland University, HR office, 1 University Place, Lamoni, IA 50140; email: personnel@graceland.edu; fax: 641-784-5033.

Help the Central Ave Center of Hope and the 2010 Feinstein $1 Million Challenge Feed the Hungry

Each year the Feinstein Foundation shares $1 million among organizations that accept the challenge to feed the hungry in America. The size of the check for the Central Avenue Center of Hope (CACH) from the Feinstein Foundation is based on the percentage raised of all participating organizations.

Continued economic stress means many homeless or under-employed turn to CACH for a chance at survival or temporary assistance for their families and themselves. CACH provides a food kitchen, food pantry, commodities pick-up, thrift store, hot showers, life-saving services for the homeless, and hope. Needs are so great the Center runs at a deficit and desperately needs your generosity to bless others.

From March 1st until April 30th, please bring your donations of non-perishable foods or cash for the Center. Each can or pound of food counts $1 toward total donations. Pledges to CACH are also accepted toward donation reporting and help furnish stability through the year. Please use the pledge form below. Place it in an envelope and write CACH on the front. Last year members of MMC did a phenomenal job. Please let the generosity continue to flow.

“Eternal joy and peace await those who grow in the grace of generosity that flows from compassionate hearts without thought of return.” D&C 163:9
