Youth Activities Policies

Parents & Participants please read the following policies and guidelines and sign below

Every camper must have their fees, forms, and parental signatures.

Every camper must have their registration forms, health forms, release forms and fees paid before they attend camp.

We hold a CLOSED CAMP policy.

A "Closed Camp" means staff and campers must remain at the activity or camp site for the duration of the camp. No visitors are allowed. Frequent coming and going is very disruptive to community building and the spiritual commitment of the camp. Therefore, a camper's attendance is very important. Our activities are designed for personal and spiritual growth. Exceptions are made only with prior agreement with Midlands Youth Ministries or extreme circumstances, such as medical conditions and family emergencies. For ethical and legal reasons, any camper leaving camp is asked to notify Midlands Youth Ministries. Campers are not allowed to arrive late without making prior arrangements. All special arrangements must be made at least one week prior to event/activity/camp with the exception of emergency.

If students drive themselves to an activity, their keys will be held during the activity by the Camp Director or designated staff.

NO Alcohol, tobacco, and drug use is allowed.

Without exception, all medications are to be given to the camp nurse or designated staff for dispensing and safekeeping. Some medications may be approved by the camp nursing staff for the camper to keep with them.

NO possession or use of firearms, fireworks, or explosives allowed.

NO sexual activity.

A policy of sexual abstinence will be enforced. All campers and staff are called to be aware of other's personal space and comfort while at camp. If you are unsure of someone's comfort level, then ask.

All are expected to exercise stewardship of self.

Do NOT put down, make fun of, threaten, pull pranks on, use abusive language or use physical violence towards any other camper or staff member. Swearing, ridicule, and sexual innuendo disrupts the Christian environment of camp. Concern for people's feelings is crucial to grow with each other. Language can be expressive and prophetic or devastating and hurtful. We ask all to use stewardship with language.

Be aware of what you wear.

Camp is not a fashion show so please leave "club'in" clothes at home. This means no revealing clothes or strapless tops. Clothes that have alcohol, cigarette ads or harsh words on them stay at home. NO bikinis or sagging shorts are allowed. You will be asked to change clothes or pull them up if they are not appropriate. We try to adhere to school dress codes.

Personal electronics are potential contraband.

Use of these devices are at the camp directors discretion. This includes but is not limited to CD players, Personal gaming systems, Cellular phones, Ipods, radios and PDAs. If you don't know if they are allowed or when, please ask.

Campers are responsible for their valuables.

We discourage campers from bringing valuables, such as large sums of money, expensive jewelry, or electronic items to camp.

I, the undersigned, have read and consent to the policies specified on this form.
